

Karl Wayne Haws, D.O.

Home Address:

3222 Willow Bend Circle
Springdale, Arkansas 72762
(479) 751-1912
kwhaws1@cox.net

Current:

Physician, Cooper Family Medicine, P.A.
Springdale, Arkansas; August 2, 1993 to present
Practice Emphasis: Family Practice with special interest in Occupational Medicine

Hospital Privileges:

Northwest Medical Center
Springdale, Arkansas

Licensure:

State of Arkansas
State of Missouri

Certification:

Diplomat, American Board of Family Practice, 1993; recertified 2000 and 2006
National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners, 1991

Post Doctoral:

Residency: Fayetteville Family Practice Residency
University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences/
Area Health Education Center – Northwest
Fayetteville, Arkansas, July 1, 1991 to June 30, 1993
Chief Resident July 1, 1992 to June 30, 1993

Internship: Still Regional Medical Center
(now known as Capital Regional Medical Center)
Jefferson City, Missouri
July 1, 1990 to June 30, 1991

Education:

Oklahoma State University College of Osteopathic Medicine
Tulsa, Oklahoma
June 1, 1986 to May 19, 1990
Degree: Doctor of Osteopathy

East Central University
Ada, Oklahoma
August 1983 to May 1985
Degree: Bachelor of Science, Biology

Northwestern Oklahoma A & M Junior College
Miami, Oklahoma
August 1980 to May 1983
Degree: Associate of Arts, Physical Education

Medical Associations:

American Osteopathic Association
American Academy of Family Physicians, Fellow
Arkansas Academy of Family Physicians

Other Positions Held:

Board Member, Bob Feller Museum

Personal:

Date of Birth: December 30, 1961 in Miami, Oklahoma
Family Status: Married, 2 children
Hobbies: baseball, physical fitness, bicycling, hiking, racquetball, photography

Personal and Professional References Available Upon Request